Tuesday through Saturday from 8:00am to 5:00pm

Tohono Chul Park ("the Park") welcomes portrait photographers ("professionals") on Park grounds. The Park considers these professionals to be those who intend to sell their photographs or are contracted to produce photos taken at Tohono Chul Park.

Professionals must register with the Director of Public Programs and Visitor Services to arrange the time and location of the shoot.

Fees for using the Park are due prior to commencing work and are as follows:

- $50 per day for photographing a group of 1 – 10 people
- Special arrangements must be made for groups larger than 10 people and special fees may apply.

Photography classes are not subject to the above fees, but must make advanced arrangements with the Director of Public Programs and Visitor Services and pay admission when utilizing Park grounds. A 10% discount off regular admission prices is available for classes with 10 or more participants, payable with one payment instrument (check or credit card).

Sessions are limited to the Park's operating hours (8:00am to 5:00pm, daily) unless previous arrangements have been made. Location is dependent on schedule activities. Park staff and volunteers will monitor professionals on the grounds. Booking the time slot in advance is important to avoid conflicting schedules and the embarrassment of being asked to return at a later date.

Photographs taken of material which is subject to copyright restrictions is prohibited.

Professionals are fully responsible for their own behavior and that of their clients, guests and/or employees while on Park grounds. No nudity is allowed. No inappropriate behavior as deemed by Park managers is allowed. Tohono Chul Park will not be responsible for the loss of any property or any other liability sustained by guests while on the premises.

Participants agree to:

- ❖ stay on designated trails
- ❖ not block designated trails or garden paths
- ❖ not damage, injure or remove any botanical specimens, wildlife or any item designated as Park property
- ❖ leave the area in the same condition in which they found it (i.e. no trash or litter of any kind)
- ❖ be courteous to other Park visitors that may come upon the professional activity
- ❖ limit the use of electrical equipment, strobes, cameras, tripods, easels, umbrellas, etc. so as to provide easy access for other Park visitors without possibility of injury

Tohono Chul Park reserves the right to refuse permission to any photographer or painter. This policy may be changed by Tohono Chul Park at its discretion.
